By Annabel Candy, HotelsCombined.com

Would you like to escape from the modern world for a while and relive the glory days of travel? While the thrill of airline travel is long over, the prestige and romance of days-gone-by lives on in some of the world's classiest casinos.

You may not be a high flyer, a high roller or a member of high society, but spending time in a classic casino and hotel will make you feel like you are.

Read on for a round up of the world's top casino and hotel combinations... outside Vegas:

The island of Ibiza is best known as a partying destination for well-heeled Europeans. The Casino de Ibiza is a fittingly classy and understated inclusion in the Ibiza scene, perfect for when you're too tired to dance.

Ibiza Gran Hotel is set in a fantastic location overlooking Old Town and the Mediterranean Sea and decorated with Spanish art. Meanwhile, its casino has enough gaming tables, slot machines and Texas hold 'em tournaments to keep players happy for many a long day and night.
